KERLY’S LAW OF TRADE MARKS
AND TRADE NAMES
SAME KERLY, NEW CONTENT

NEW 15TH EDITION

James Mellor QC; Professor David Llewelyn; Tom Moody-Stuart; David Keeling; Iona Berkeley

The cornerstone of trade mark law, Kerly’s Law of Trade Marks and Trade Names, provides you with a full and thorough analysis of trade mark law, through a mix of analytical commentary, up-to-date case law and legislation from both the UK and Europe.

There has been a great deal of case law since the last edition, yet the EU law of trade marks remains unclear and uncertain in some key areas. To help you make sense of the latest judicial thinking, the new edition extracts the settled principles and discusses the more controversial decisions of the Court of Justice of the European Union. In addition, numerous amendments have been made to chapters on key topics surrounding the law of trade marks.

Still the same authoritative work that you’ve come to expect, this new edition brings you all the latest information you need to stay on top of today’s trade mark law, practice and procedure.

NEW TO THIS EDITION:

• Includes all recent case law developments, including Intel, L’Oreal v Bellure, Whirlpool, Lindt, Cipriani, and Budweiser as well as the adwords cases culminating with Interflora
• Provides the latest legislation, including the updated Trade Mark Directive, Community Trade Mark Regulation and Misleading and Comparative Advertising Directive
• Incorporates recent legislative change such as the Trade Marks (Relative Grounds) Order 2007, the Trade Marks Regulations 2008, the Trade Marks (Earlier Trade Marks) Regulations 2008 and the Community Trade Mark (Amendment) Regulations 2008
• Substantially rewritten chapters on Relative Grounds and Infringement
• Chapters on Defences, Evidence, the Olympics
• The latest on the Community Trade Mark and Madrid systems
• Keytopics such as, Exhaustion, Competition, Company and Business Names, the Internet and Human Rights have been made more accessible
• Up to the minute discussion of the various functions of a trade mark

TRITTON ON INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY IN EUROPE

4TH EDITION

Guy Tritton
Contributing authors: Richard Davis, Ashley Roughton, and Tom St Quintin

The fourth edition of this popular text thoroughly examines the wide range of laws regulating intellectual property in Europe. It has become recognised as the leading guide on the subject, dealing with both Community law and the international conventions affecting protection of IP rights.

• Provides coverage of all intellectual property rights in one source; patents, copyright, designs, trade marks and plant varieties, considering the practical dimensions of each one as well as the substantive law
• Provides expert commentary on the practical aspects of IP, such as licensing, franchising, joint ventures and enforcement
• Examines intellectual property and competition law, highlighting ways in which the two areas overlap
